FAQs

- Who can apply? Those who need protection from an abusive partner or ex-partner (regardless of whether you lived together or not), family members or those that have shared parental responsibilities.
- Police or Court Bail Still refer. Bail conditions may not cover all that an injunction can do and we may still be able to obtain an order if police bail is in place.
- Last incident? If an incident is recent, we may be able to get an order via an emergency application, if not we may still be able to help.
